Nodes are entities with their readable attributes, agents green and objects blue.
Edges are actions, from the agent to what it acts on, with the record each leaves; in purple, the counts and patterns over edges of that kind.
Each attribute or pattern lists the conclusions in which it varies or responds.